On behalf of the ACSA/CCSESA School-to-Career Taskforce, we welcome your participation in the Eighth Annual School-to-Career Academy. For the past seven years, the conference has been the premier networking and training event for everyone connected to School-to-Career.

This year, the 2003 School-to-Career Academy focus is School-to-Career Means No Child Left Behind! Breakout workshop themes include:

- ☆ Impact of No Child Left Behind federal legislation on School-to-Career programs
- ☆ Partners who make powerful student and employer connections
- ☆ Innovative employer and labor engagement activities
- ☆ Student involvement, including vocational student organizations, leadership activities, and workforce mentoring
- ☆ Unique community partnerships, especially through WIA and youth councils
- ☆ Strategies, tools, materials, and data that address the following:
 - ✓ Student achievement and motivation
 - ✓ Employer/labor/community satisfaction and return on investment
 - ✓ Postsecondary education, training and articulation

University Credit
 One (1) unit of college credit is available for $44 through Fresno Pacific University. Registration will take place at the conference.
